Founded in 2001, Community Vision International, Inc. (CVI2), serves as a low-overhead, public benefit, non-profit, 501(c)(3) corporation, registered in the State of Oregon (USA). CVI2 exists to enable visionary consultants to advise and train community members in facilitating social and cultural transformation of their communities. CVI2 enables qualified visionaries by networking them in an association of "independent contractors," providing financial, ethical and professional accountability. CVI2 Associate, Pastor John Werst oversees funds for the 2025 Pacific Northwest Men's Conference under financial and accounting rules established by CVI2 Board of Directors. All donations to Community Vision International are tax deductible. Receipts provided by CVI2.
